. . . OF 1958

DEDICATION TO OUR LADY OF LOURDES

During 1958, the Centennial Year of the apparitions of Our Lady of Lourdes, thousands of Catholics throughout the world will commemorate her anniversary. Here at Notre Dame--a school dedicated to Our Lady--we are preparing our first yearbook. As a part of our tribute to Our Lady, and to assure the success of our work, we humbly dedicate this book to her. We, therefore, proceed in our undertaking with the simple confidence that her never-faltering hand will guide us, and with the hope that we may capture and reveal in the following pages something of the spirit of Notre Dame. Having thus entrusted this first annual to the care of Our Lady of Lourdes, we ask her to accept it and to christen it "Sa Route" that such a title may symbolize and embody the ideal of Notre Dame education--training in "Her Way."

RECIPE FOR SENIORS

In September of 1954 one hundred twenty Freshmen were folded into the Student Body of N.D.H.S. Stirred and seasoned by Sister Mary Wilma, they began to grow gradually into the perfected product which would result from four years of patient simmering.

First, class officers were elected: Mary Ann Imwalle, Linda Luchetti, Jeanne McGann, Pam Sullivan and Terrie Giluso. The Juniors then initiated them to the tune of "Sharps Meet Flats." Enriched by working on the Christmas baskets for the poor, a dash of flavor was added with the introduction of the "Spook House" at the annual Carnival. After bubbling vigorously through the Freshman picnic at Seacliff, the program welcoming eighth-graders as in-coming freshmen, and decorating for the Senior Graduation exercises at the end of the year, they were taken off the fire and allowed to settle before fall.

Lo! The "Freshies" became Sophomores and upon their return to Notre Dame in 1955, they were completely immersed in school activities. Kathy O'Toole, Diana Souza, Mary Jo Avilla, Lorraine Peltier, Gaylene Bonebrake, Fleur Kettmann, were given them as officers. They were an ever-willing class when it came to helping with school activities. The class of '58 was matured greatly by the responsibility of cleaning up after school dances and further developed by. filling more baskets for the poor, contributing to more charitable works. A dash of work and fun was added with the Chocolate Bar Drive to aid the building fund, and another dash of flavor with the Soph Hop, "Swingin' on a Star." All of these activities were undertaken under the direction of Sister Theresa St. Francis. Realization that the year had ended all too soon came with the Sophomore-Senior Brunch.

By September of 1956, they had become upper classmen under Sister Agnes Cecilia's guidance. They chose as their Junior Class officers: Terry Tiernan, Dottie Fontana, Anna Selva, Terrie Giluso, Gloria Cesena, and Jo Kleemann. The long awaited Freshman Initiation gave them a chance to revel in doings "Out of This World." Once again caught up in school activity, they decorated the Hallowe'en Dance, carrying out the theme "Harvest Moon." The Christmas Dance as well as the first annual Cotton Ball were made more enjoyable by the refreshments supplied by this class. Plans in the latter part of the year revolved around the Junior Prom, "Heaven On Earth," of which the Queen was Helen Raymo. After a final sifting, the responsibility of student-body government was taken on by: Fleur Kettmann, President; Maryann Imwalle, Vice-President; Kathy O'-Toole, Parliamentarian; and Helen Raymo, Athletic Manager.

Seniors they were in 1957 and they proved it by pitching in with a will to initiate a new form of student government--Senior Control, under the guidance of Sister Margaret Dolores; and with Kathy O'Toole as student leader. Class officers were: Terrie Giluso, Linda Lucchetti, Dottie Fontana, Joan Sabol, Mary Letha Zets, and Sue Sleek. They provided refreshments for the Hallowe'en Dance and decorated the Christmas Dance to open a bright new year. Among other activities, on the annual Senior trip to Sacramento, they proved themselves shining examples of all for which Notre Dame stands: Citizenship, Courtesy, and Culture.

The Seniors, then almost graduates, began activities of farewell with the Junior-Senior picnic in San Francisco, then the long-awaited Senior Ball. But, the girls paused in their fun to recall all for which they had to be thankful on their Day of Recollection. Again, in quick succession came finals, the Baccalaureate Mass, and the Sophomore-Senior Brunch. Class Day dawned with Kathy O'Toole as Valedictorian and Terry Tiernan as salutatorian.

On June the seventh, the Class of '58 graduated from St. Joseph's Church. The finished product: a group of Mary-like women, citizens, homemakers of tomorrow who realized that High School days are too short. Yet, memories are made of such as this!

P.S. For best results, sift the courage, spirit, and loyalty of the finest teachers, plus a dash of rain! Success guaranteed!

COMMENCEMENT

GRADUATION PRAYER

The bells ring out,
the candles shine,
As one by one
they march in line
Up darkened aisle
to the Throne of Grace
And kneel in prayer
in the Holy Place.

A milestone!
Mothers' prayers have wrought,
And Fathers pause
in quiet thought --- Twelve years it took the Sisters' skill
To mold each soul
to a common will,

The will to live
their whole lives through With love of God
and their fellowman, too.
With faces lifted,
eyes aglow,
Our daughters
graduate, and lo!

A second milestone!
Twelve long years
Bound in laughter,
Work and tears.
Go on from here!
Daughter of mine.
Let your heart
Be Faith's fair shrine

Sending its light
eternally Aloft, O Lord,
in praise to Thee.
Give us
Thy Benediction, please.
We ask it, God,
upon our knees.
